TOOK BEHIND ME TO FIND
THE SECRET PASSAGE

15th January 1871

Dear Reader,
The strangest thing happened last night. As I drifted off into my slumber, I was awakened suddenly by the sound of footsteps. This morning, I left my tent to discover my basket of food had been opened. The new meat I had purchased from the butcher and removed from its parcel and drained of its blood. Might it have been a vampire? I cannot think of another animal that would drink the blood and leave the meat behind.

Now that reminds me! I remember picking up garlic bulbs outside my tent, as if they had been discarded by whichever creature invaded my sleeping. Surely, it must have been a vampire, for they are known for hating garlic!

I will be on the lookout for any other strange happenings.
